THEOLOGICAL TRANSLATION FUND.—A Series of Translations, by which the best results of recent Theological investigations on the Continent, conducted without reference to doctrinal considerations, and with the sole purpose of arriving at truth, will be placed within reach of English readers. A literature of a more independent character, less biassed by dogmatical prepossessions, a literature which is represented by such works as those of Ewald, Hupfeld, F. C. Baur, Zeller, Rothe, Keim, Schrader, Nöldeke, &c., in Germany, and by those of Kuenen, Scholten, and others in Holland, it is desired to render accessible to English readers who are not familiar with the languages of the Continent.

Three Volumes, of about 400 pp., annually, for a Guinea Subscription. The Prospectus, bearing the signatures of Principal Tulloch, Dean Stanley, Professors Jowett, H. J. Smith, Henry Sidgwick, Dr. Davidson, the Rev. James Martineau, Mr. W. G. Clark, the Revds. T. K. Cheyne, J. Allanson Picton, C. Kegan Paul, John Caird, and others, may be had on application to

WILLIAMS and NORGATE, 14, Henrietta Street, Covent Garden, London; and 20, South Frederick Street, Edinburgh.

HIBBERT TRUST.

THREE SCHOLARSHIPS will be awarded on this Foundation, after the next Examination, provided that three Candidates are declared by the Examiners to be duly qualified. The next Examination will be held at University Hall, Gordon Square, London, on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, the 2nd, 3rd and 4th days of December, 1872. Candidates must furnish satisfactory evidence of age, graduation and other points, the particulars of which may be obtained on application to the Secretary of the Trust, and the names and addresses of all Candidates must be sent to the Secretary at University Hall on or before October 1st, 1872.

A. H. PAGET, Secretary.
